Executive Panelists

Clayton Mitchell
 Senior Vice President,
 Real Estate and Facilities
Thomas Jefferson University and Jefferson Health

Mr. Mitchell leads facilities management services and public safety for a 14 hospital healthcare system and university based in Philadelphia and southern New Jersey. He is charged with leading a corporate transformation of real estate, facilities, security (including a 32 officer police force) and 400+ staff distributed across five divisions. Mr. Mitchell serves or has served on a variety of civic and professional associations, including the Center City District Philadelphia Board of Directors, Urban Land Institute Healthcare and Life Sciences Council, The Center for Health Design Built Environment Network, The Common Market Board of Directors, and Downtown Denver Partnership.

Patricia LaRoche
 Owner
Cameron & Associates 8

Ms. LaRoche has successfully steered a career track spanning over 28 years in the financial industry with a keen focus on fair lending practices, workforce development, and Diversity & Inclusion initiatives, leading to her current role as President at Cameron & Associates 8, one of the largest minority professional firms in the city of Philadelphia. Ms. LaRoche provides solutions for the challenges of developing and implementing successful D&I strategies: vendor management and supplier diversity protocols. Under her leadership, Cameron and her highly professional team have created pathways for more underrepresented groups to enter and succeed in careers within the construction, medical, government, and educational sectors.

Donald Moore
 Senior Vice President, Real Estate, Facilities,
 and Operations
Children's Hospital
 of Philadelphia

Donald Moore is SVP, Real Estate, Facilities and Operations at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP), one of the top-ranked children's hospitals in the United States. Mr. Moore has close to four decades of experience in facilities development and operations management, and throughout his career, he has overseen countless design, construction and operations management projects. Most recently, Mr. Moore served as Vice President of Real Estate and Facilities at Drexel University, where he spearheaded a partnership with uCity Square and Wexford Science & Technology that sparked redevelopment activity at the western-most end of Drexel's campus, advancing the development of a half-million square foot home for the College of Nursing and Health Professions and Drexel University College of Medicine.

Merrie L. Winston
 Owner's Representative,
 Facilities Design &
 Construction
Talson Solutions

In her 30+ years of experience, Merrie Winston has been key to a wide range of projects including new construction and renovation of buildings in higher education, healthcare, public and commercial real estate. Merrie has worked with a variety of different institutions, agencies, and architects including Temple University, Rowan University, NJ Schools Development Authority, and Paul Rudolph Architect. Throughout her career she has served primarily as the Owner's Representative whether working directly for an institution as a consultant in facilities, managing her own company or as an Architectural Project Manager. In her role she has managed multiple projects, budgets, consultants and departments. Ms. Winston's projects have ranged in size from $50,000 to $600 million and are located throughout the world.

Dave Kaminski
 Vice President &
 General Manager
Turner Construction Company

Event host Dave Kaminski is responsible for oversight of preconstruction and construction management services and overall financial success of Turner's Philadelphia and Delaware offices. An energetic, hands-on leader, Dave brings to his oversight role all of the components necessary to guide Turner's team. Dave brings comprehensive operational and financial knowledge of Turner's local Business Unit and his experience overseeing its portfolio of data centers, research & development core and shell and interior fit-outs, commercial, healthcare, higher education, and sports projects.
